Classroom parents can help me most by...

Communicate with me often, I want to have authentic and personal relationships with your child. If there's something you think I need to know or questions you might have for me-please don't hesitate to reach out to me.

I want my classroom parents to know...

I'm eager to create a family culture in my classroom. My goal is that every student who walks into my classroom is excited to be there, feels safe and knows they belong.

I'm also a Bauer parent that has a current second and third grader.
